Four Facts

The seal of the Cherokee Nation is a seven pointed star surrounded by a wreath of oak leaves. The oak is a symbol of strength and everlasting life. Two words for Cherokee Nation are written in the Cherokee syllabary. Sept 6, 1839 is the adoption of the Cherokee Constitution and the modern Cherokee Holiday celebrates this event. The seven pointed star stands for the seven clans of the Cherokee. The Cherokee seal was adopted by law and approved by Chief Lewis Downing on December 11, 1871.
