

Cherokee Humanities Course Application
Sponsored by the Cherokee Heritage Center
Fall 2020
Deadline: August 7, 2020 5:00 pm

The Cherokee Humanities Course is offered through the Cherokee Heritage Center and partners with Northeastern State University to offer up to two semesters and 6 hours of college credit in Cherokee Studies for eligible candidates. As funds are available, a travel and child care stipend will be offered. Preference is given to older students who have never attended college, students returning to college after an extended absence and students currently pursuing a degree. A limited number of students are selected. High school concurrent enrollment is not available.

Guest may apply to attend classes at no cost and will not be eligible for college credit or stipends. There are no restrictions for guest enrollment.

Enrollment in the class can only be completed through this application. First time NSU students must complete the online registration at <https://apply.nsuok.edu/>. You DO NOT pay the $25 registration fee; the charge is paid by the Cherokee Heritage Center. Former and current NSU enrollees must be in good standing with the university to be eligible.

Selection notification will be within 2 days after deadline.

Applicant enrolling as: Credit - receives college credit, mileage/childcare reimbursements

Guest - takes active part in course but does not receive college credit or incentives
